Table of Contents

Page 3: Leafing Through
by Laura Jennings, Video & Multimedia Designer “Whenever I open a book, I never know what kind of world is going to grow up out of those pages.”

by Stephen Tierney, Vice President of Creative Services “The card catalog takes me back to my childhood, so that’s why I added some playful elements.”

by Kayleigh Freshman, UX Designer “Architecture was always one of my favorite parts of Art History and libraries across the world are beautiful historic structures. I wanted to focus on fun architectural elements to color in.”

by Robert Stewart, Graphic Designer
“The library’s quiet environment has always served as an escape from my normal everyday life.”

Laura Gaiser, Graphic Designer

by Jared T. Williams, Staff Illustrator
“My love of nature, of history and of drawing all began inside the pages of books.”

by Chelsea Leahy, Web Designer
“I have the best memories of going to my local public library as a kid, sitting on the reading rug and listening to the librarian read aloud.”

by Megan Hobart, Graphic Designer
“I love accessing digital library resources on my tablet. I can visit the library whenever I want to without leaving home!”

Page 11: Genre-Bending
by Laura Jennings, Video & Multimedia Designer “Movie genres have always fascinated me because no matter how you try to label a film, it will always defy expectations.”

Page 12: Craft Area
by Jared T. Williams, Staff Illustrator
“Whether it was at home before bed or in quiet corners of the local library, books were what made the world come alive for me.”
