

1

Nearly 150,000 eBook Titles

EBSCO eBooks™ flagship Academic Collection is the largest, most cost-effective annual subscription offering covering essential curriculum areas and providing your library with a strong foundation of research content.

As of July 2016

2

Top Academic, University Press and Trade Publishers

EBSCO is one of the world's leading e-book intermediaries and has 70 years of experience building publisher relationships. The Academic Collection provides librarians with a dynamic set of academic content from 130 University Presses and more than 475 academic publishers.

WILEY

McGill-Queen's University Press

Taylor & Francis
Taylor & Francis Group

The MIT Press

ELSEVIER

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

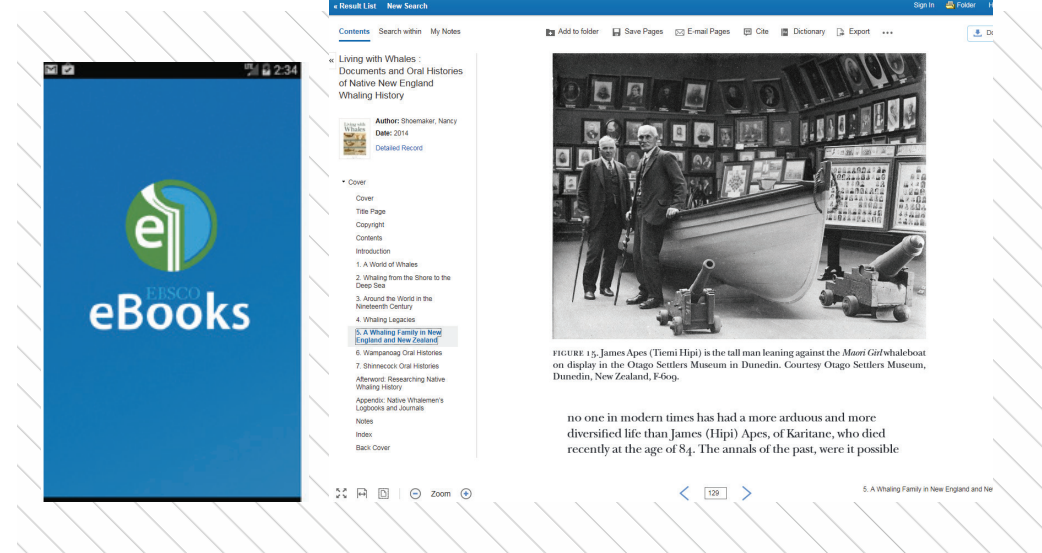

Springer

3

Integrated User Interface Supporting Researchers' Needs

Fast, detailed title search with no delays with full-text record loading to EBSCOhost showing real-time availability status, and location of all catalog items, databases, e-books, journals and other resources making access quick and easy.

- Browse a library's online catalog and seamlessly access, scroll, cite, note and export with the EBSCO eBooks Viewer
- Anytime, anywhere access with the EBSCO eBooks App for around-the-clock research

4

Seamless, Automated Workflow for Discovery

Librarians can integrate e-books seamlessly into their EBSCO Discovery Service platform and optimize the collection with comprehensive full-text searching and subject indexing, exposing your students to the full depth of your library's offerings and creating a rich content experience.

5

Foundational Content Top Universities Rely On

Unlimited user access allows more students to view each title in the collection whenever they want, wherever they want.

Start my FREE EBSCO eBooks Academic Subscription Collection trial today!