

Finding Read-alikes

Start with a favorite title

Just finished Klara and the Sun and you're looking for more like it?

Enter Klara and the Sun in the search box

Click Search

Select the title record

At the title record, see the read-alikes on the right

Hover over a jacket image to learn more

TIP: In Novelist Plus you can find audiobook listen-alikes in the same way!

Custom searches

At the bottom of every record (author, title, series) is a Search for More section, which allows you to build a custom read-alike search.

Here is an example for Under the Whispering Door:

From the book record for Under the Whispering Door scroll down to the Search for More section

Click to select the terms you like, for example Witty and Character-driven

Click Search

Try a favorite author or series

Waiting for your favorite author to publish a new book or for the next book in your favorite series to come out? Try looking for read-alike recommendations for your favorites.

Here's an example for fans of Liane Moriarty:

Enter Liane Moriarty in the search box

Click Search

Select the author record

On the author record, see the read-alikes on the right side

Here's an example for fans of the Broken Earth series:

Enter Broken Earth in the search box

Click Search

Select the Series tab

Select the series record

At the series record, see the read-alikes on the right

When to use:

Librarians: Have a reader looking for read-alikes for an author you don't know?

Readers: Did you just finish the last book in your favorite series and now are looking for a new favorite?

Parents: Looking for another book like the one your reluctant reader recently enjoyed?
